Defendants.

Civil Action No. 1:17-CV-2989-AT

COALITION PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT ON JOINT DISCOVERY DISPUTE (DOC. 1360)

Coalition Plaintiffs respectfully request an expedited oral argument, to the extent the Court feels it would be beneficial, on the remaining issues in the pending Joint Discovery Dispute (Doc. 1360) covering a number of documents that logistically should be produced in advance of pending depositions (Doc. 1399), currently set to begin as early as July 6, 2022. The dispute concerns documents related to the; reported breached Coffee County server containing the state's EMS software applications, election data, and alleged compromise of numerous voting system components; State Election Board's past and current investigations of the reported breach; and reported malfunctions of the Coffee County voting system. At the June 7, 2022 conference, the Court determined that the Coffee County-related depositions could go forward:

“But, you know, you are, of course, welcome to take the deposition of anyone you want who has knowledge as to Coffee County.” (Tr.27:1-3)

The Court did not rule on remaining issues in the Joint Discovery Dispute. To the extent the Court would find it helpful to hold oral arguments to resolve remaining issues, Coalition Plaintiffs seek expedited oral arguments.
